

west midlands
ACADEMIC HEALTH SCIENCE NETWORK

Making a difference to people with diabetes – sharing event

Tuesday 19 July 2016

9am – 4.15pm

Fazeley Studios, 191 Fazeley Street, Birmingham, B5 5SE

Programme

9am	Registration
9.15am	Welcome and introduction to the day Lucy Chatwin, WMAHSN http://wmahsn.org
9.30am	Getting to know each other Steve Bott, Efficient Thinking Solutions http://www.efficient-thinking.co.uk
10am	National Diabetes Prevention Programme Susan Turton, Health Exchange https://www.healthexchange.org.uk
10.30am	Use of Patient Knows Best at Sandwell and West Birmingham Hospitals NHS Trust, Diabetes department Dr Abdul Safi, Sandwell and West Birmingham Hospitals NHS Trust http://www.swbh.nhs.uk
11am	Refreshment break
11.20am	Diabetes and mental health Dr Peter Lewis, WMAHSN Mental Health Clinical Lead http://wmahsn.org
11.45am	Diabetes and eye health – how to improve patient education Mr Samer El-Sherbimy, Birmingham and Midland Eye Centre http://bmec.swbh.nhs.uk/about-us/history-of-bmec/birmingham-and-midland-eye-centre-2/
12.15pm	An introduction to Meridian health innovation exchange Tammy Holmes, WMAHSN http://meridian.wmahsn.org
12.45pm	Round up and an introduction to the afternoon session Steve Bott, Efficient Thinking Solutions
1pm	Lunch and networking
1.30pm	Introduction to Whose Shoes – putting people first – how to co-produce to create innovative person centred solutions Gill Phillips – Nutshell Communications http://nutshellcomms.co.uk/gill-phillips-and-the-origins-of-whose-shoes/

- 2.30pm Practical session – making a difference exploration session – what could your difference be? Discuss your difference and see if you can gain support for implementing your difference!
Steve Bott, Efficient Thinking Solutions
- 3.30pm Which projects do we want to support moving forwards - Dragons den session
Steve Bott, Efficient Thinking Solutions
- 4pm Summary and next steps
Lucy Chatwin, WMAHSN

4.15pm Event close