

JOIN US

Learn about what others are doing to achieve patient safety success

Register
with our code:
PF-AHSN-17 to access a fully-subsidised place!

Infection
Control

Medicines
Safety

Medical Device safety

Quality Improvement

Technology

Efficiency

In association with the Patient Safety Collaborative, this theatre is designed to share best practice and experiences of providers and commissioners covering preventable harm from urinary catheters, learnings from the National Early Warning Score, falls prevention in care homes, increasing the survival chances of extremely premature babies and more.

Education grants available to AHSN and Patient Safety Collaborative members! Use code PF-AHSN-17 when registering to waive the £399 +VAT delegate fee.

www.patientfirstuk.com

PATIENTFIRST

PREVENTING HARM IMPROVING CARE
21ST - 22ND NOVEMBER 2017 EXCEL LONDON

www.patientfirstuk.com

IN ASSOCIATION WITH

Patient Safety Collaborative

The AHSN Network Improvement

CONFERENCE PROGRAMME >>>

Time	Tuesday 21st November
09:55 - 10:40	Identifying and responding to patient deterioration in non-acute healthcare settings Geoff Cooper, Programme Manager and Improvement Coach, Wessex Patient Safety Collaborative Andrew Cook, Chief Nurse, Interserve Healthcare Ltd Tracey Jones, Clinical Assurance Manager, Interserve Healthcare Ltd
11:20 - 12:05	Increasing the survival chances of extremely premature babies by improving access to specialist care Katherine Edwards, Head of Patient Safety, Oxford AHSN
12:15 - 12:45	Human factors and QI - a fresh approach to learning from success and incidents Trevor Dale, Managing Director, Atrainability Ltd
14:00 - 14:45	SPACE: Safer Provision and Caring Excellence Helen Hunt, Assistant Programme Manager, West Midlands Patient Safety Collaborative Tracie Wilson, Quality Improvement Nurse, West Midlands Patient Safety Collaborative Caroline Maries –Tillott, Quality Improvement Lead, West Midlands Patient Safety Collaborative
15:00 - 15:45	Safer care through the National Early Warning Score Anne Pullyblank, Clinical Director for Patient Safety, West of England Academic Health Science Network Emma Redfern, Associate Clinical Director for Patient Safety, West of England Academic Health Science Network
16:30 - 17:15	STEADY On! falls prevention in care homes Phil Jennings, Medical Director, Innovation Agency

Time	Wednesday 22nd November
10:00 - 10:45	Safety huddles: Bringing fun to the frontline and reducing harm Alison Cracknell, Yorkshire & Humber AHSN Alison Lovatt, Clinical Improvement Network Director, Yorkshire & Humber AHSN Anna Winfield, Yorkshire & Humber AHSN
11:20 - 12:00	From thermometers to thermostats: taking control of preventable harm from urinary catheters Eric Barratt, Patient Safety Project Manager, Health Innovation Network Dr Adrian Hopper, Patient Safety Clinical Director, Health Innovation Network
12:10 - 12:50	Spread and adoption of patient safety improvement through the use of the online collaboration platform "Life QI" Kate Hall, Director of Capability Development, UCLPartners Jason Williams, Director, Seedata
13:40 - 14:20	Improving quality in primary care William Lilley, South West AHSN
14:30 - 15:10	Enhancing Safety IQ – a systematic approach to understanding care quality through a longitudinal analysis of serious incidents in healthcare Mark Edwards, Kent Surrey & Sussex AHSN
15:30 - 16:15	Building carer-friendly communities: lessons from Leeds Jen Kenward, Experience of Care Lead – Community, Primary and Integrated Care, NHS England Fatima Khan-Shah, Carers Lead, West Yorkshire and Harrogate Sustainability and Transformation Partnership Val Hewison, Chief Executive, Carers Leeds

